Brad,
10:30 won't work now. Not sure if today will work after all. Let's stay in touch and see if we can find a time to talk amidst the fires. Thx.

I am not available today. Monday is fine. If you are talking about the issue Steve VanGasbeck just argued and won I assume you are not going to waste ours and the court's time making the same argument regarding notice. I am in all day Monday. Have a good weekend- Brad

Brad,

There is a threshold dispositive issue in this matter against Delphi (concerning bankruptcy matters) that I would prefer to discuss with you by phone. Are you available today to discuss? Thanks.
